

BOOK ADVENTURES "THE SNOWY DAY"

The St. Louis Promise Zone, in partnership with STL Black Authors, will be hosting a Book Adventures event showcasing "The Snowy Day" by Ezra Jack Keates. This book was the first widely published book in the 20th century to introduce an African American protagonist.

We'll have live readings of "The Snowy Day" and other children's books written by local African American authors. Additionally, there will be arts and crafts stations, cookies and hot cocoa. Come have a blast with us as we celebrate this monumental children's book!
